

Academic Program Approvals Academic Year 2016-2017

Prepared by the Office of the Provost

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

Date: June 9, 2017

During the Academic Year 2016-17 the following new academic programs were approved by the Office of the Provost.

College of Arts and Sciences

- Interdisciplinary Minor in Italian-American Studies
- Minor in Socio-legal Studies

Quinlan School of Business

- M.S. in Business Data Analytics
- Certificate in Business Administration

School of Communication

- Certificate in Digital Media Ethics
- Certificate in Organizational Leadership and Change Management: Communication and Integrity in the Digital Age

School of Continuing and Professional Studies

- BA in Applied Communication

School of Law

- Certificate in Compliance Studies
- Certificate in Privacy Law

Dual Degree and Interdisciplinary Programs

- The Graduate School and the College of Arts and Sciences: Five-Year Accelerated Programs: BS Biology/ MS Bioinformatics and BS Bioinformatics/ MS Bioinformatics (BS/MS)
- The Graduate School, School of Social Work, and the Institute of Public Health: Three-Year Dual Degree Program (MSW/MPH)
- School of Law and School of Education: Dual Degree in Law and Education Policy (JD/MEd)
- School of Law and School of Education: Cross-Disciplinary Certificate in School Discipline Reform