

FACULTY CENTER FOR IGNATIAN PEDAGOGY

Co-Directors

Bridget Colacchio, MA, LCSW, ABD

Jessica Mansbach, PhD

OUR APPROACH

Ignatian Pedagogy

- Promotes learning as a social process that involves reflection and action, aimed at serving the greater good.

Anti- Oppressive Pedagogy

- Promotes learning that humanizes all students and involves them in the co-creation of knowledge, aimed at confronting systems of oppression.

Student Centered Design

- Promotes learning that intentionally places student experience and learning at the center, aimed at reversing typical "educator as expert" models of education.
