Course Description

The objective of this course is to provide students with a basic understanding of the general principles of business finance: capital investment, financing, capital structure and related areas including the basics of valuation.

 FINC 301 is a terminal course. If you have any desire to major or minor in FINC you must take FINC 334 in Chicago.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course students should be able to:

- Apply time value of money and risk-return concepts to make financial decisions
- Value financial and physical assets
- Analyze appropriate capital budgets
- Evaluate dividend policies

Required Text / Materials

Essentials of Corporate Finance, Ross, Westerfield and Jordan – 9th Edition

Assigned readings posted on Sakai

Attendance Policy

In accordance with the JFRC mission to promote a higher level of academic rigor, all courses adhere to the following absence policy. Prompt attendance, preparation and active participation in course discussions are expected from every student.

- For all classes meeting twice a week, students cannot incur more than two absences.

The final course grade will drop by 1% for each absence beyond the allowance specified.

The collective health of the JFRC is everyone's responsibility. Do not attend class if you are ill.
