If you are already in the United States, what is your current non-immigrant status?

(i.e., B-1/2, F-1, F-2, J-1, J-2, H-1B, H-4): _____

If you wish to change your status to F-1 student using the I-20 issued by Loyola, you must apply for Change of Status with the USCIS after receiving the Loyola I-20. Please contact the office for International Programs for more information about the Change of Status process (iss@luc.edu or 773-508-3899).

If you are transferring your record in SEVIS to Loyola from a school in the U.S., you will need to request that your record be released from your current school.

Please indicate the name of the school you are transferring from _____

Applicants must submit evidence of adequate financial support to cover the cost of attendance for at least one academic year of studies at Loyola with the expectation that funding will be available for the entire program of study.

The amounts provided below are estimates only and pertain to the minimum enrollment required to maintain F-1 status for one academic year. For specific tuition and fees information, please consult the Office of the Bursar www.luc.edu/bursar.

If supported by personal and/or family funds, submit the signed affidavit of support (below). Applications must include proof of funding dated within the last six months, reflecting a balance availability to cover the total amount listed below as well as expenses of any accompanying dependents.

If sponsored by government, educational institution, or official agency, please submit an official letter reflecting that the scholarship is valid at Loyola.
