Biography

Carl J. Burlage, Jr. was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana on December 25th 1918 to parents Carl Sr. and Solina. Nicknamed “Jack” by his family, he grew up with one brother, Thomas. He received his B.A. from John Carroll University in 1939, his Ph.L from West Baden College in 1947, entered the Society of Jesus in February of 1945, and was ordained a priest in June of 1948. Throughout this time he served as Philosophy instructor at both Xavier University and the University of Detroit.

Burlage received his Ph.D. in Philosophy from St. Louis University in 1957, the same year he became an Associate Professor of Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago. During his time at Loyola, Burlage served as director of the Honors Program, as well as a consultant for the establishment of honors programs at various other institutions.

After retiring from Loyola, Burlage served as pastor of St. Mary the Presentation Church in Geneva, Indiana from 1990 to 1992. He died at age 77, in September of 1996, at the Colombiere Center for Jesuit Priests in Clarkston, Michigan.
