

Sociology Major

The required courses for Sociology majors are Sociology 205, 206, 301 and 365. (Note: Any Sociology 100-level course is considered to be a prerequisite for 205, except by special permission of the instructor). Sociology 206 is a prerequisite for Sociology 301. Sociology 205, 206 and 301 are prerequisites for 365. These courses provide background needed for more advanced work. Besides the four required courses, majors will take seven additional courses, five of which must be from Sociology 210-371. One elective taken in a related field may be counted toward the major with the permission of the chair or undergraduate director. Only one semester of Sociology 371 (Internship) may be counted toward the major (although this is a six-credit-hour course, it counts as one course).
